for Golfers with Disabilities
Monday, August 16, 2010

In March of 1996, the golf community experienced a great loss with the passing of Chuck Scally, Sr. Chuck, golf pro and owner of Scally's Golf Center in Moon Twp., was a great friend of golfers throughout the tri-state area, especially golfers with disabilities. This tournament, named in his honor, is a tribute to a man who dedicated himself to helping people with disabilities experience and enjoy the game of golf. Today, we take this opportunity to remember his generosity and to thank his family for their continued support of this event.

In its 17th year the Chuck Scally Memorial Open, a scramble format tournament, is the only golf tournament in western PA open to players with all types of disabilities, including leg and arm amputation, spinal cord injuries, arthritis, cerebral palsy, orthopedic disabilities, polio, and survivors of stroke and brain injury.
